Preface

County data on Supplemental Security Income (SSI) are a measure of the local impact of the program. This report is a resource for Social Security Administration (SSA) staff in formulating policy and for local service providers and economic planners.

The SSI program is a cash assistance program that provides monthly benefits to low-income aged, blind, or disabled persons in the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the Northern Mariana Islands. The states and other jurisdictions have the option of supplementing their residents' SSI payments and may choose to have the additional payments administered by the federal government. When a state chooses federal administration, SSA maintains the payment records and issues the federal payment and the state supplement in one check. The data presented in this document are for federal and federally administered state payments only. State-administered supplementation payments are not included.

The tables present SSI data by eligibility category (aged, blind, and disabled) and age. State data on the number of recipients and amount of payments are shown in Tables 1 and 2, respectively. SSI recipients who also receive Social Security (Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance) benefits are shown in Table 1 and also in Table 3, which presents data at the county level.

The data are drawn from the Supplemental Security Record, the principal administrative data file for the SSI program. State and county payment amounts are rounded to whole dollars. To avoid disclosure of information for particular individuals, data are not shown for states, counties, or eligibility groups with fewer than 15 recipients. Therefore, some state totals shown include a small number of recipients not distributed by county.

Stella M. Coleman in the Division of SSI Statistics and Analysis programmed and compiled the data for this report. Emil Loomis designed the cover, Celine Houget edited the report, Kathryn Winstead produced the print publication, and Laurie Brown prepared the electronic versions for the Web at http://www.socialsecurity.gov/policy.

For questions pertaining to the data, please call Stella Coleman at 410-965-0157 or e-mail ssi.sc@ssa.gov. For additional copies of this report, please telephone 202-358-6274 or e-mail op.publications@ssa.gov.
