

Adult Disability Interview Checklist

We encourage you to begin the application process online. To get started, visit www.socialsecurity.gov/applyfordisability. This Checklist helps you know what you will need to file online and may help you get ready for your appointment. We need your personal and income information to determine if you are eligible for disability benefits. Keep your appointment even if you do not have all of the information. We will help you get any missing information. Do not delay filing your application, even if you do not have all of the information.

Check off the applicable items below as you get them together for your interview.

- Medical records already in your possession. (We will help you get the rest of your medical records. Please bring whatever medical records you have to the interview).
- Workers' compensation information, including the settlement agreement, date of injury, claim number, and proof of other disability awarded payment amounts.
- Names and dates of birth of your minor children and your spouse.
- Dates of marriages and divorces.
- Checking or savings account number, including the bank's 9-digit routing number, if you want Direct Deposit for your benefit checks.
- Name, address, and phone number of a person we can contact if we are unable to get in touch with you.
- If unable to file online, complete the "Medical and Job Worksheet – Adult" and bring to your interview.
- Bring the Checklist items and information to your appointment or have them with you if your appointment is by telephone.
