

X. Unilateral Amendments

SSA reserves the unilateral right to amend this user agreement at any time to implement the following:

1. Minor administrative changes, such as changes to SSA contact information; or
2. Procedural changes, such as method of transmitting requests and results and limits on the number of SSN Verification requests.

SSA will notify the Permitted Entity of any unilateral amendments under this section. If the Permitted Entity does not wish to be bound by any such unilateral amendment, the Permitted Entity may terminate this user agreement with 30 calendar days' notice.
