Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 217(a) through (e) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent us making an accurate and timely determination on your claim, and could result in loss of benefits.

We will use the information you provide to determine entitlement eligibility or the amount of Social Security benefits based on your military service. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) the fact that a veteran is, or is not, eligible for retirement insurance benefits under the Social Security program for OPM's use in determining a veteran's eligibility for a civil service retirement annuity and the amount of such annuity; and
- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We will disclose information under this routine use only in situations in which SSA may enter a contractual or similar agreement with a third party to assist in accomplishing an Agency function relating to this system of records.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORNs) 60-0059, entitled Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1819; 60-0089; Claims Folders System, as published in the FR on October 31, 2019, at 84 FR 58422; 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1830; and 60-0118, entitled Non-Contributory Military Service Reimbursement System, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1830; at 71 FR 1834. Additional information, and a full listing of all our SORNs, is available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy.
