SECURITY, WORK, AND RELIEF POLICIES

1942

REPORT OF THE
COMMITTEE ON LONG-RANGE WORK AND RELIEF POLICIES
TO THE
NATIONAL RESOURCES PLANNING BOARD
The President.
The White House.

MY DEAR MR. PRESIDENT:

We have the honor to transmit herewith the report of our Technical Committee on Long-Range Work and Relief Policies. In accordance with our conference with you, we appointed this Committee to review a decade of experience in meeting the needs of our disadvantaged citizens through the provision of work, social insurance, and public assistance.

The membership of this Committee has consisted of government officials and private individuals who have had broad and varied experience both in the development of policy toward and in the administration of Federal, State, and local, as well as private, endeavors in these fields. The membership of the Committee and their affiliations at the time of their appointment follows:

William Haber, Professor of Economics, University of Michigan, Chairman.
Will W. Alexander, Administrator, Farm Security Administration, Department of Agriculture.
Clarence M. Bookman, Executive Vice Chairman, Cincinnati Community Chest.
Corrington Gill, Assistant Administrator, Work Projects Administration, Federal Works Agency.
Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Haas, Dean, School of Social Science, Catholic University of America.
Fred K. Hoehler, Executive Director, American Public Welfare Association.
Miss Katharine F. Lenroot, Chief, Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor.
Miss Mary E. Switzer, Assistant to the Administrator, Federal Security Agency.
Thomas J. Wooter, Jr., Director of Research, Federal Security Agency.

Dr. Eveline M. Burns has served as Director of Research.

The members of the Committee have contributed generously from their own wide range of experience, as well as from the experience of their agencies and associations.

The Committee has not merely reviewed the findings of the research staff made available by the Board but in spite of other heavy demands on their time has participated continuously over the past two years both in the research and in the drafting of the report. The recommendations arrived at are a consensus and, hence, do not represent merely the findings of individual members.

The Board members find themselves in general agreement with the recommendations of the Committee, considered as a whole but not in all detail. We have stated our own position at greater length in the Introduction to the report.

In our general program for the stabilization of employment and the development of our national resources, this report holds a peculiarly strategic place. We submit it with the hope that it will be of assistance in the determination of major policies in a series of related fields.

Sincerely yours,

FREDERIC A. DELANO, Chairman.
CHARLES E. MERRIAM.
GEORGE F. YANTIS.
NATIONAL RESOURCES PLANNING BOARD

Frederic A. Delano, Chairman

George F. Yantis

ADVISORS

Henry S. Dennison

Beardsley Ruml

DIRECTOR

Charles W. Eliot

ASSISTANT DIRECTORS

Frank W. Herring

Thomas C. Blaisdell, Jr.

RALPH J. WATKINS

In charge of this project

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Harold Merrill

COMMITTEE ON LONG-RANGE WORK AND RELIEF POLICIES

William Haber, Chairman

William W. Alexander

Claude M. Bookman

Corrington Gill

Francis J. Haas

Fred K. Hoehler

Katharine Lenroot

Mary E. Switzer

Thomas J. Wooster, Jr.

TECHNICAL STAFF

Eveline M. Burns, Director of Research

Kathleen C. Arneson

Beatrice Goldberg

Simon Neidel

Wyllis Bandler

Franz Huber

Thomas E. Parks, Jr.

Clare W. Butler

Julius J. Joseph

Irlene M. Rittenhouse

Frances Cahin

Dorothy F. Kaplan

Irene L. Ruehr

Isabel G. Carter

Harry Malisoff

Elna N. Smith

Ema M. Cull

Samuel E. Martz

Helen R. Serele

Lorene A. Epstein

Glenn B. McClelland

Herman M. Somers

Paul A. Fischer

Roma K. McNickle

Ellen B. Winston

Gordon Murray
SECURITY, WORK, AND RELIEF POLICIES

Contents

Introduction by the National Resources Planning Board, p. 1

PART I. EVOLUTION OF PUBLIC-AID PROGRAMS, p. 5

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>Public Aid: Its Nature and Problems</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Importance of Public Aid</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Changing Character of &quot;Relief&quot;</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Meaning of Public Aid</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Problems of Public-Aid Policy</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Growth of the Need for Public Aid</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Security and Work Opportunity for the People</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Economic and Financial Problems</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Administrative Problems</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Necessity for Policy Evaluation</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II</td>
<td>The Problem of Economic Insecurity, 1930-40</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>General Economic Conditions</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Agricultural Situation</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Unemployment</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Inadequacy of Incomes</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Public Recognition of the Problem</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III</td>
<td>The Evolution of Policy and Programs, 1930-40</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Relief Prior to 1930</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Local Public Relief</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>State Responsibility</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Federal Responsibility</td>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Major Developments, 1930-40</td>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Early Years of the Depression</td>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Development of Federal and State Programs, 1933-35</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Beginning of a Permanent Program</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Preeminent Role of the Federal Government</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Federal Financial Responsibility</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Federal Influence over the Forms and Administration of Public Aid</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Expanding Role of State and Local Governments</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Changing Content of Public-Aid Measures</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Work Programs</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Special Measures for Youth</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Social Insurances</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Special Public Assistance</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Programs for the Agricultural Population</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>General Relief</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Service Aspects of Public-Aid Programs</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Health and Welfare Services</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV</td>
<td>The Programs Operating in 1940</td>
<td>63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Measures for the Unemployed</td>
<td>63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Work Projects Administration</td>
<td>63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Measures for Youth</td>
<td>66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Unemployment Compensation</td>
<td>68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Public Employment Service</td>
<td>71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Measures for the Aged</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Old-Age Assistance</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Old-Age and Survivors Insurance under the Social Security Act</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Old-Age, Disability and Survivors Insurance under Railroad Retirement Legislation</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Measures for the Agricultural Population</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Rural-Rehabilitation Loans</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Farm Security Grants</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Farm Debt Adjustment</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Migrant Camps</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Medical Care</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Provision for Dependent Children</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Provision of Income to the Sick and Disabled</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Workmen's Compensation</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Aid to the Blind</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Noncategorical Programs</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>General Relief</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Distribution of Surplus Commodities</td>
<td>91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Community Services</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Health and Medical Services</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Child-Welfare Services</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Public Housing</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V</td>
<td>The Recipients of Public Aid</td>
<td>98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Volume of Public Aid</td>
<td>98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Changing Size of the Public-Aid Population</td>
<td>98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Geographic Distribution of the Public-Aid Population</td>
<td>102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Duration of Public-Aid Support</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Characteristics of the Public Aid Population</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Economic Status</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Size and Composition of Households</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Physical Characteristics of Individuals</td>
<td>113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Occupational and Industrial Characteristics</td>
<td>120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Length of Separation from Private Employment</td>
<td>124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Employability of the Public-Aid Population</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Persistence of the Public-Aid Problem</td>
<td>130</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>&quot;Unemployable&quot; in the Public-Aid Population</td>
<td>130</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>&quot;Employable&quot; in the Public-Aid Population</td>
<td>131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI</td>
<td>In Public Aid Available to the Needy Population</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Limitations of the Special Programs</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Eligibility Restrictions</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Incomplete Operation of the Special Programs</td>
<td>138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Discontinuity of Aid from Special Programs</td>
<td>140</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Limitations of General Relief</td>
<td>141</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PART II. PUBLIC-AID PROGRAMS AND THE PEOPLE, p. 135

Chapter VII: The Level of Living Provided to Recipients of Public Aid

Measurement of Levels of Living
Cost of a Minimum Budget
Use of Average Grants
Basis of Program Comparisons

General Relief
The 9-Cities Study
State-wide Studies of Relief Standards
Relief Policies Affecting Adequacy of Payments
Special Public Assistance
Effects of Federal Stipulations
Adequacy of Assistance Payments
Receipt of Surplus Commodities Only
Federal Work Programs
Earnings from WPA Security Wage
WPA Security Wage in Relation to the "Emergency" Budget
Direct Studies of the Level of Living of Project Workers
Summary

Social Insurances
Old-Age and Survivors' Insurance
Railroad Retirement
Unemployment Compensation
Railroad Unemployment Insurance
Workmen's Compensation

Differences in Levels of Living Afforded by Public Aid
Regional Differences
Group Differences

PART III. FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC ASPECTS OF PUBLIC-AID MEASURES, p. 289

Chapter X: The Intergovernmental Distribution of Financial Responsibility for Public-Aid Programs

Distribution of Financial Responsibility between Levels of Government
Programs Financed Wholly by the Federal Government
Programs Financed Jointly by Federal and Other Governments

Chapter X: The Intergovernmental Distribution of Financial Responsibility for Public Aid Programs—Continued

Distribution of Financial Responsibility between Levels of Government—Continued
Programs Financed Solely by States or States and Localities
The Forces Making for Extensive Federal Financial Participation
PART III. FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC ASPECTS OF PUBLIC-AID MEASURES—Continued

Chapter X: The Intergovernmental Distribution of Financial Responsibility for Public-Aid Programs—Con.
The Forces Making for Extensive Federal Financial Participation—Continued
Restricted Fiscal Capacities of Localities and States
Interstate Differences in Need and Wealth
Evaluation of the Extent and Character of Federal Aid
Equalization of the Burden on Taxpayers
Assurance of Access to Minimum Security
Influence of Federal Financing on Program Development
Unpredictability of Federal Aid
Intra-State Problems of Public-Aid Financing
Financial Arrangements within the States
Evaluation of the Extent and Character of State Aid
Influence of State Financial Participation in Comparison with Other Factors
Local Variations of Adequacy of Public-Aid Provision and in Burdens of Taxpayers
Influence of State Participation upon Program Development
Chapter XI: The Economic Effects of the Disbursement and Collection of Public-Aid Funds
Forces Affecting Recovery
Influence of Public-Aid Disbursements and Collections on Purchasing Power
Extent of Taxation and Borrowing in Financing Public Aid
Economic Effects of Deficit-Financed Public Aid
Economic Effects of Tax-Financed Public Aid

PART IV. THE ADMINISTRATION OF PUBLIC AID, p. 363

Chapter XIII: The Problem of Administrative Organization and Coordination
Administration of Diversified but Related Programs
Demarcation of Responsibilities of the Federal Agencies
State and Local Demarcation of Responsibilities
Avoidance of Duplicate Receipt of Aid
Administrative Participation of Several Levels of Government
Federaly-operated Programs Sponsored by States or Localities
State-Federally Aided State Programs
State-Locally Administrative Relationships
Administration of Diversified Programs by Several Levels of Government
Variety and Complexity of Administrative Relationships
Multiplicity of Points of Intake
Burdens upon Reporting Employers
Absence of Over-All Policy Evaluation and Coordination

Chapter XIV: Administrative Personnel
The Personnel of Federal Agencies
Civil Service Agencies
Non-Civil-Service Agencies
Personnel of State and Local Agencies
Federally Aided Programs
General Relief
Inadequacy of Administrative Staffs

Chapter XV: Administration and the Democratic Process
Dissemination of Information by Federal Agencies
Dissemination of Information by State and Local Agencies
Reports to Officials or Official Bodies
Periodicals
Special Studies
General Comment
Public Participation through Advisory Committees
Federally Appointed Advisory Bodies
Advisory Bodies Appointed by States and Localities
Lay Participation in Administration
Nonofficial Organizations of the Public
PART V. PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE, p. 443

Chapter XVI: Summary of Findings

Page
The Extent of the Need for Public Aid 445
Full Employment will not Eliminate Need 445
Obstacles to Maintenance of Full Employment 447
Ten Years of Experiment and Evolution 448
The Beginnings of a Permanent Program 448
Changing Policies and Programs 448
The Social Challenge of Economic Insecurity 449
The Assurance of Maintenance 450
The Existence of Unmet Need 451
The Level of Living of Public Aid Recipients 453
Conditions Under which Public Aid is Received 457
The Public Social Services 460
Health Services 460
Education 461
Child-Welfare Services 461
Public Housing 462
Policies Underlying the Provision of Social Services 462
Work, Guidance, and Training for the Employable Population 462
The Public Employment Service 463
Rural-Rehabilitation Loans 463
Federal Work Programs 463
The Financing of Public Aid 469
Assurance of Adequate Appropriations 469
Coordination of Public-Aid Financing with Other Governmental Fiscal Policy 470
Selection of Taxes in Relation to the Objectives of Public-Aid Policy 472
Distribution of Financial Responsibility Among Levels of Government 473
Public-Aid Administration 477
Problems Due to Diversification 478
Problems Due to Participation of Several Levels of Government 480
Differing Federal and State Organizational Arrangements 482
Overlapping Regional Organizations 483
Multiplicity of Points of Intake 483
The Burden on Reporting Employers 484
Lack of Over-All Policy Evaluation 485
Administrative Personnel 485
Lack of Citizen Participation 486

Chapter XVII: Public-Aid Policy: The Selection of Ends and Means

Page
The Character of the Problem 487
The Broad Objectives of Public-Aid Policy 487
The Specific Objectives of Public-Aid Policy 490
Financial and Administrative Principles 494

Chapter XVIII: The Effectuation of Consistent Principles and Policies

Page
The Character of Preventive Policies 505
Public Spending and Public Aid 505
Minimum Wage Legislation 505
Geographical Redistribution of the Population 505
A Direct Attack onLow Productivity 504
Improvement of the Nation’s Health 504
Role of Social Case Work 504
Provision of Work and Training for the Unemployed 504
The Planning of Work Projects 504
General Work Programs 505
Assisted Training and Transference 508
Work and Training Programs for Youth 508
The Distribution of Work Opportunity 511
Assurance of Minimum Security 514
The Level of Public Aid Payments 514
The Conditions Under which Public Aid should be Available 515
Implementation of Access to Minimum Security 518
Expansion of the Social Services 520
Eligibility for the Social Services 520
Assurance of Adequate Medical Care 520
Social Services as a Byproduct of Public Aid 521
The Financing of Public Aid 522
Restricted Use of Consumption Taxes 522
Intergovernmental Distribution of Costs According to Needs and Resources 524
Administration 528
Reduction of Administrative Difficulties Due to Diversification of Programs 528
Distribution of Administrative Responsibility Between Levels of Government 528
Strengthening of Administrative Personnel 539
Continuous Study and Evaluation of Public-Aid Policy 590
Public Aid and the Democratic Process 542

Chapter XIX: Summary of Recommendations

Page
INDEX p. 619
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Tables</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Number of programs in operation, number of persons aided, and obligations incurred for special public assistance. 1934 and 1939</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Length of time required by State laws to acquire legal settlement or residence or both for purposes of qualifying for general relief, 1933, 1938, and 1941, by States</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Number of households and persons, and percentage of total population beneficiary from public-aid programs, January 1933 through June 1940, high and low months of each year</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Persons benefiting from public-aid programs, exclusive of social insurances, in the continental United States for selected months, 1937-40; percentage distribution of total population and public-aid population by socio-economic regions</td>
<td>104</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Median duration of continuous project employment of WPA workers by age, race, sex, size of family, and size of community, February 1939</td>
<td>108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Distribution of WPA workers by age groups, for selected months, 1938-40</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Effect of separations due to 18-months rule on age distribution of WPA project workers</td>
<td>116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Usual occupations of all workers and of economic heads of families eligible for work-program employment, January 13, 1939, percentage distribution</td>
<td>122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. Usual occupations of persons employed on work programs, January 1939 and November 1940</td>
<td>122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. Median duration of unemployment for urban workers leaving general-relief rolls for WPA employment or for private employment, by age, race, and sex, October-December 1936</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11. Duration of unemployment since loss of last job of former WPA workers, by major source of income in August 1937 in urban and rural areas</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12. Duration of project employment of WPA workers, by sex, February 1939</td>
<td>129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13. Involuntary separations of workers from employment on WPA projects in the continental United States, by month, July 1939-August 1940</td>
<td>141</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14. Separations from the NYA out-of-school work program because no job was available on the program, August 1939 through July 1940</td>
<td>141</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15. Combined effects of State and local residence requirements under State statutory provisions establishing legal settlement for general-relief purposes, as of January 1, 1941</td>
<td>144</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16. Cases receiving commodities only, through direct distribution and the food-stamp plan, by socio-economic regions, continental United States, October 1940</td>
<td>152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17. General-relief cases and cases receiving surplus commodities only, continental United States, by socio-economic regions, October 1940</td>
<td>152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18. Estimated distributions of families of two or more persons in three types of community in five geographic regions, by relief status and non-relief income, 1935-39</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>19. Average monthly public-aid payments in the United States, by program, June 1940</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20. Amount of general-relief allowance and value of surplus commodities compared to cost of goods for emergency level of living in 46 cities, by socio-economic regions, October 1940</td>
<td>165</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21. Amount of general-relief allowance and value of surplus commodities compared to cost of goods for emergency level of living in 13 cities, by socio-economic regions, October 1940</td>
<td>165</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22. Proportion of cost of goods for emergency level of living represented by general-relief allowances in 46 cities, by socio-economic regions, October 1940</td>
<td>166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>23. Proportion of cost of goods for emergency level of living represented by general-relief allowance in 46 cities, October 1940, by size of city</td>
<td>167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>24. Proportion of cost of goods for emergency level of living represented by general-relief allowance and by general-relief allowance plus surplus commodities in 56 cities, October 1940</td>
<td>167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25. Schedule of monthly earnings on WPA projects, effective September 1, 1939</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>26. Percentage distribution of persons employed on WPA-operated projects in the continental United States, by monthly assigned wage, December 27, 1938, and June 20, 1940</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>27. Full-time monthly wages of project workers on WPA-operated projects as percentage of the cost of the emergency budget, by wage class, selected urban areas, June 15, 1940</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>28. Percentage distribution of WPA workers, by source and amount of monthly income, in 13 cities, March 1936</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>29. Monthly retirement benefits under old-age and survivors insurance for assumed average wages and years of coverage, as percentage of average monthly wage</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30. Monthly survivors' benefits under old-age and survivors insurance for assumed average wages and years of coverage, as percentage of average monthly wage</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>31. Average monthly benefits under old-age and survivors insurance for family units and individual awards, January-June 1940</td>
<td>196</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>32. State variations of average benefits allowed under old-age and survivors insurance, January-June 1940</td>
<td>196</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33. Monthly benefits under old-age and survivors insurance for assumed years of coverage and average monthly wages</td>
<td>197</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>34. Distribution, by $10 intervals, of benefits under railroad retirement legislation, June 1940</td>
<td>188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>35. Effect of annual-earnings formula on size of weekly benefit payments for total unemployment in four States</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>36. Average weekly compensation payment for total unemployment, January-June 1940, and percentage distribution of number of weeks of total unemployment compensated, April-June 1940, by amount of benefit payment, continental United States; by States and by socio-economic regions</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Industrial production, by month, January 1919–June 1940
   Page 17

2. National product per capita, 1919–1940
   Page 18

3. Indices of prices received and prices paid by farmers, 1919–40
   Page 19

4. Estimated total labor force, employed and unemployed, by months, January 1929–June 1940
   Page 20

5. Cash farm income, 1910–1940
   Page 28

6. Number of households and persons benefiting from public-aid programs (excluding the social insurances), January 1933–June 1940
   Page 90

7. Number of persons benefiting from public-aid programs (excluding the social insurances), by program, January 1933–June 1940
   Page 101

8. Recipients (cases) benefiting from employment on projects of the Civil Works Administration and Work Projects Administration, from general relief, and from special types of public assistance, January 1933–June 1940
   Page 102

9. Recipients benefiting from selected public-aid programs, January 1935–June 1940
   Page 103

10. Payments to recipients benefiting from public-aid programs (excluding the social insurances), by socio-economic region, for selected months, 1937–40
    Page 104

11. Recipients benefiting from public-aid programs (excluding the social insurances), by socio-economic region, June 1940: percentage distribution by program
    Page 105

12. Payments to recipients benefiting from public-aid programs (including the social insurances), by socio-economic region, June 1940: percentage distribution by program
    Page 105

13. Proportion of total population receiving emergency relief, July 1934–June 1935, by county
    Page 107

14. Workers with previous work experience on relief in March 1935, and gainful workers in the United States in April 1930, by class of occupation
    Page 121

15. Workers with previous work experience on relief in March 1935, and gainful workers in the United States in April 1930, by class of occupation and color
    Page 122

16. Distribution of families of two or more persons in the United States, 1935–36, by income level
    Page 155

17. Distribution by income level, of families of two or more persons, in five regions of the United States, 1935–36
    Page 156

18. Average grants per recipient of old-age assistance payments, by States, June 1940
    Page 198

19. Average grants per recipient of old-to-the-blind payments, by State, June 1940
    Page 196

20. Average grants per family receiving aid-to-dependent-children payments, by State, June 1940
    Page 200

21. Average grants per case receiving general relief, by State, June 1940
    Page 201

22. Estimated unemployment and WPA employment, 1936–40
    Page 235

23. Number of rural-rehabilitation borrowers, by status, at end of year, 1935–39
    Page 281

24. Distribution of active standard rural-rehabilitation borrowers, December 31, 1939
    Page 282

25. Organizational pattern of public-aid functions at the State level, 1940
    Page 384-385
This report has been made possible through the cooperative assistance of various agencies, organizations, and individuals. Among Federal agencies, special mention should be made of the contributions from the Federal Security Agency, the Bureaus of Employment Security, Old Age and Survivors Insurance, Public Assistance, and Research and Statistics of the Social Security Board, Work Projects Administration, National Youth Administration, Civilian Conservation Corps, Office of Education, Public Health Service, Railroad Retirement Board, Surplus Marketing Administration, the Bureaus of Agricultural Economics, and Home Economics, and the Farm Security Administration of the Department of Agriculture, the Children's Bureau, the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and the Division of Labor Standards of the Department of Labor. The American Public Welfare Association, the American Association of Social Workers, and the American Retail Federation also supplied valuable information. The Directors of Public Welfare in the several States and in 59 cities covered by the special 59 Cities Study gave freely of their time in completing questionnaires and supplying information relative to the operation of general relief programs.

The conduct of the study was also greatly facilitated by the willingness of the Bureau of the Budget, the Federal Security Agency, the Social Security Board, the Work Projects Administration, the Department of Agriculture, the Division of Placement and Unemployment Insurance of the New York State Department of Labor, the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission, the Philadelphia County Board of Assistance, and the American Public Welfare Association to make personnel available to work with the Technical Staff for extensive periods of time.

In addition to the staff members listed on a previous page, acknowledgment is due to the following persons for the preparation of extensive memoranda and materials utilized in various parts of the study: Elizabeth T. Alling, Josephine C. Brown, Lucy W. Brown, Gerhard Colm, Elaine Exton, Lincoln Fairley, Anne E. Geddes, Joel Gordon, Clarence Heer, Peyton A. Kerr, Robert T. Lansdale, Harry Maslow, John D. Millett, Howard B. Myers, Mabel G. Newcomer, Elizabeth L. Otey, Sol Ozer, Helen Piffard, Barlow S. Sanders, Saya S. Schwartz, Carolyn Silverman, Herman Slomin, Paul L. Stanchfield, Marietta Stevenson, Ruth E. Stocking, Helen Tarasov, Helen W. Tippy, John N. Webb, Emmet Welch, Pierce Williams, Royal van de Woestyne, and Alice Vonkman. Mr. Howard B. Myers also served as alternate on the Committee in the absence of Mr. Corrington Gill.

The Director of Research is particularly indebted to Franz Huber and Herman M. Somers who assisted her in organizing the work of the staff, and to Glenn B. McClelland who assumed a large part of the administrative responsibility for the work of the Committee. The Technical Staff also desire to express their appreciation of the services rendered by Kathleen T. McCormick, who served as secretary, and by the statistical and library staffs of the National Resources Planning Board.