\(^1\) Provides the authority for the President to waive the Buy American Act and other discriminatory provisions for eligible products from countries that have signed an international trade agreement with the United States, or meet certain other criteria, such as being a least developed country. The President has delegated this waiver authority to the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). In acquisitions covered by the World Trade Organization Government Procurement Act, Free Trade Agreements, or the Israeli Trade Act, the USTR has waived the Buy American Act and other similar provisions for eligible products. Offers of eligible products receive equal consideration with domestic offers.
