Old Age, Disability, and Survivors

Regulatory Framework

First laws: Various laws for specified groups of workers from 1829 to 1954.

Current law: 1995 (social insurance and individual accounts), implemented in 1996.

Type of program: Social insurance, individual account, and social assistance system.

Note: The mixed social insurance and individual account system is mandatory for employed and self-employed persons born after April 1, 1956, with monthly earnings greater than 15,187 NP; the individual account is voluntary for those with monthly income of 15,187 NP or less.

Coverage

Social insurance: Employed and self-employed persons, including rural and domestic workers.

Special systems for bank employees, notaries, university graduates, armed forces personnel, and police force personnel.

Social insurance and individual account: Employed and self-employed persons, with monthly earnings greater than 15,187 NP.

Voluntary coverage under the individual accounts system for employed and self-employed persons with monthly earnings of 15,187 NP or less.

Special systems for bank employees, notaries, university graduates, armed forces personnel, and police force personnel.

Social assistance: Needy elderly or disabled persons.

Source of Funds

Insured person

With gross monthly earnings of 15,187 NP or less, a mandatory contribution equal to 15% of earnings is paid to social insurance only. (Voluntary contributors to the individual account with gross monthly earnings of 15,187 NP or less, contribute 7.5% of earnings to social insurance and 7.5% of earnings to the individual account.)

With gross monthly earnings greater than 15,187 NP, 15% of 15,187 NP is paid to social insurance and 15% of the earnings above 15,187 NP (up to and including 45,562 NP) is paid to the individual account.

The insured’s contribution includes an average 0.97% of covered earnings for disability and survivor insurance and an average 1.86% of covered earnings for administrative fees if contributing to an individual account.

The maximum monthly earnings for contribution purposes are 45,562 NP.

Earnings for contribution purposes are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Self-employed person: 15% of declared covered earnings, including an average 0.97% of declared covered earnings for disability and survivor insurance and an average 1.86% of declared covered earnings for administrative fees if contributing to an individual account.

The maximum monthly earnings for contribution purposes are 45,562 NP.

Employer: 7.5% of covered payroll for social insurance only (contributions are waived for certain professional activities).

The maximum monthly earnings for contribution purposes are 45,562 NP.

Government: Earmarked proceeds of various taxes help finance pension deficits; pays the total cost of noncontributory benefits; contributes as an employer.

Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension

Old-age pension (social insurance): Age 60 (men and women) with at least 35 years of coverage. Additional years of service are credited for hazardous occupations.

Deferred pension: With at least 35 years of coverage, the pension is increased for each year of deferral.

Old-age pension (individual account): Age 60 (men and women) with at least 35 years of coverage; age 65 with no coverage requirement.

Advanced-age pension (social insurance and individual account): Age 70 (men and women) with 15 years of service. Retirement from the current place of employment is necessary.

Noncontributory means-tested pension (social assistance): Age 70 (men and women), assessed as needy, and with at least 15 years of residency.

Disability pension

Permanent disability pension (social insurance and individual account): The insured must be incapable of any work and have an assessed degree of disability of at least 66%. If the disability is the result of an accident, there are no other qualifying conditions. Alternatively, must have at least 2 years of recognized service, including the 6 months before the disability began; at least 6 months of recognized service before the disability began if younger than age 26. Coverage is extended for up to 2 years after employment ceases if the insured has at least 10 years of coverage.

Partial disability benefit (social insurance and individual account): The insured must be incapable of work in the usual job and have an assessed degree of disability of 50% to 66%. If the disability is the result of an accident, there are no other qualifying conditions. Alternatively, must have at least 2 years of recognized service, including the 6 months before the disability began; at least 6 months of recognized service before the disability began if younger than age 26. The benefit is paid on a temporary basis and is subject to a reassessment of the incapacity to work.

District medical commissions of the Social Security Bank assess the degree of incapacity to work.

Noncontributory means-tested pension (social assistance): Must be assessed as totally and permanently disabled, needy, and have at least 15 years of residency in Uruguay.

Survivor pension

Survivor pension (social insurance and individual account): The deceased was working; a pensioner; a beneficiary of partial disability benefits, sickness benefits, maternity benefits, or work injury benefits; unemployed and receiving unemployment benefits; or death occurred in the 12-month period after the unemployment benefit ceased. Coverage is extended for up to 12 months after employment ceases; no limit with at least 10 years of coverage.

Eligible survivors include a widow(er), a divorced spouse, orphans up to age 21 (no limit if disabled), and dependent disabled parents. A widow(er) or a divorced spouse younger than age 30 receives benefits for 2 years; from age 30 to age 39, for 5 years; or without limit if older than age 39. A widow(er) must have average monthly earnings in the 12 months before the insured’s death of no more than 45,562 NP; 26,198 NP for a divorced spouse.

Funeral grant: The grant is paid to eligible survivors or to the person who paid for the funeral. (If the funeral costs are paid by a pension scheme, only necessary additional funeral costs are paid.)

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension

Old-age pension (social insurance): The monthly benefit is equal to 50% of the insured’s average indexed earnings in the last 20 years, with at least 35 years of coverage. The pension is increased by 0.5% for each year of work exceeding 35 years, up to a maximum of 2.5%, and by 2% for each year of work after age 60 if the contribution condition was not met.

Deferred pension: The pension is increased by 3% for each year after age 60, up to a maximum of 30%.

The minimum monthly pension is 2,930 NP. The maximum monthly pension is 26,198 NP.

The pension is payable abroad under bilateral or multilateral agreement only.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Advanced-age pension (social insurance): The monthly benefit is equal to 50% of average indexed earnings in the last 10 or 20 years, whichever is greater, plus 1% for each year of work exceeding 15 years, up to a maximum of 14%.

The pension is payable abroad under bilateral or multilateral agreement only.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Old-age pension (individual account): The value of the pension depends on the insured’s contributions plus accrued interest, minus administrative fees. At retirement, the insured uses the accumulated capital to purchase an annuity from an insurance company.

The pension is payable abroad under bilateral or multilateral agreement only.

Advanced-age pension (individual account): The value of the pension depends on the insured’s contributions plus accrued interest, minus administrative fees. At retirement, the insured uses the accumulated capital to purchase an annuity from an insurance company.

The pension is payable abroad under bilateral or multilateral agreement only.

Noncontributory means-tested pension (social assistance): 2,930 NP a month is paid.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension

Permanent disability pension (social insurance): The monthly pension is equal to 65% of the insured’s average indexed earnings in the 20 years before the disability began, or the total number of years worked if less than 20 years.

Special allowances: A lump sum of 1,125.59 NP is paid for transportation costs and a lump sum of 2,131.27 NP is paid for rehabilitation costs.

Partial disability benefit (social insurance): The monthly benefit is equal to 65% of the insured’s average indexed earnings in the 20 years before the disability began, or the total number of years worked if less than 10 years. The benefit is paid for up to 3 years.

The minimum monthly benefit is 2,930 NP. The maximum monthly benefit is 26,198 NP.

Benefits are payable abroad under bilateral or multilateral agreement only.
Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Permanent disability pension (individual account): The monthly pension is equal to 45% of the insured’s average indexed earnings in the 20 years before the disability began. (Disability insurance tops-up the accumulated capital in the individual account if the balance is less than the required minimum to finance the permanent disability pension.)

Partial disability benefit (individual account): The monthly pension is equal to 45% of the insured’s average indexed earnings in the 20 years before the disability began. The benefit is paid for up to 3 years.

Noncontributory means-tested pension (social assistance): 2,930 NP a month is paid.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension

Survivor pension (social insurance and individual account): A monthly pension equal to between 66% and 75% of the pension paid or payable to the deceased is paid, depending on the number of survivors. (Life insurance tops-up the accumulated capital in the deceased’s individual account if the balance is less than the required minimum to finance the survivor pension.)

Widow(er)s and divorced spouses share 100% of the pension if there are no other eligible survivors. Widow(er)s and divorced spouses share 70% of the total pension if they have children; 60% if there are no children but other eligible survivors. The remainder is split equally among other eligible survivors. In the absence of a widow(er) or a divorced spouse, 100% of the pension is split equally among other eligible survivors.

The pension ceases if the widow(er) or divorced spouse remarries.

For members of an individual account scheme, the accumulated capital in the individual account, equal to the insured’s contributions plus accrued interest, minus administrative fees, is transferred to an insurance company, which pays the pension.

Survivor pensions are payable abroad under bilateral or multilateral agreement only.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted according to the civil servants’ average wage index.

Funeral grant: The cost of the funeral is paid, up to 7,054 NP.
