Unemployment

Regulatory Framework

The Labour Code (2010) requires employers to provide severance pay to employees with at least 12 months of continuous service. Severance is paid in cases of redundancy, mental or physical incapacity, liquidation of the firm, in situations where the employee cannot continue to work without breaking a law, or if the employer dies. The benefit amount for full-time employees is 75% of the employee's daily pay multiplied by the number of months of service, or nine days of pay multiplied by the number of years of service. (Different formulas apply for casual, part-time, or piece-work employees.)

Family Allowances

Regulatory Framework

Under the 2013 Public Assistance Act, the Social Development Department (<http://www.bvi.gov.vg/departments/social-development-department/>) under supervision of the Ministry of Health and Social Development (<http://www.bvi.gov.vg/content/ministry-health-and-social-development/>) provides cash and in-kind benefits to needy individuals.
