Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension (national pension program): Age 65 with at least 25 years of contributions (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods). The full pension is paid with 40 years of paid contributions. The coverage period includes years of coverage under the EPI and other employment-related programs as an insured’s dependent spouse (including common-law spouse).

Retirement is not necessary. There is no earnings test.

Early pension: Aged 60 to 64 with at least 25 years of contributions.

Deferred pension: The pension may be deferred until age 70.

Spousal supplement: If the insured receives a dependent’s supplement for a spouse under the EPI, the spouse will receive a supplement when he or she reaches age 65 and receives a pension in his or her own right under the NP program.
Old-age pension (employees’ pension insurance): Age 60 (gradually rising to age 65 by 2025) (men) and 2030 (women) or age 59 (seamen and miners) with at least two years of contributions (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods).

Retirement is not necessary.

Earnings test: The pension is reduced if the insured continues working beyond age 60 and the combined total of monthly earnings and pension exceeds 280,000 yen (aged 60 to 64) or 470,000 yen (aged 65 to 69).

Dependent’s supplement: Paid for a dependent spouse younger than age 65. The supplement ceases when the spouse reaches age 65 and receives a pension in his or her own right under the NP program. Paid for children up to the end of the fiscal year in which they reach age 18 (up to the month they reach age 20 if disabled).

Disability pension (national pension program): Must be assessed with a Group I (total disability and requires constant attendance) or a Group II (severely restricted ability to live independently) disability. Must have been insured at the first medical exam and have paid contributions during 66.7% of the period from age 20 to two months before the month of the first medical exam (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods). Alternatively, must have paid continuous contributions (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods) for one year before the two-month period before the month of the first medical exam (until March 2026).

Dependent’s supplement: Paid for children up to the end of the fiscal year in which they reach age 18 (up to the month they reach age 20 if disabled).

Disability pension (employees’ pension insurance): Must be assessed with a Group I (total disability and requires constant attendance), Group II (severely restricted ability to live independently), or Group III (severely restricted ability to work) disability. Must have been insured at the first medical exam and have paid contributions during 66.7% of the period from age 20 to two months before the month of the first medical exam (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods).

Dependent’s supplement: Paid to persons with a Group I or II disability for a dependent spouse younger than age 65. The supplement ceases when the spouse reaches age 65 and receives a pension in his or her own right under the NP program.

Disability grant (employees’ pension insurance): Paid for a Group I (total disability and requires constant attendance) or Group II (severely restricted ability to live independently) disability. Must have paid contributions during 66.7% of the period from age 20 to two months before the month of the first medical exam (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods).

Survivor pension (national pension program): The deceased received or was entitled to receive an NP old-age pension; an insured person or a resident of Japan aged 60 to 64 with paid contributions during 66.7% of the period from age 20 to two months before the month of the death (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods); or, if younger than age 65, must have paid continuous contributions for one year before the two-month period before the month of the death.

Eligible survivors include a widow(er) living with and caring for the deceased’s children up to the end of the fiscal year that the child reaches age 18 (up to the month they reach age 20 if disabled), and full orphans up to the end of the fiscal year that they reach age 18 (up to the month they reach age 20 if disabled).

Dependent’s supplement: Paid for children up to the end of the fiscal year in which they reach age 18 (up to the month they reach age 20 if disabled).

Childless widow’s pension (national pension program): Paid to a childless, dependent widow aged 60 to 64 and married to the deceased for at least 10 years. The deceased was not an old-age pensioner at the time of death and had at least 25 years of contributions (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods).

Death grant (national pension program): The deceased did not meet the contribution requirements for an NP old-age or disability pension at the time of death and had at least three years of contributions (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods).

Survivor pension (employees’ pension insurance): The deceased received or was entitled to receive an EPI old-age or disability (Group I or II) pension; or had paid contributions during 66.7% of the period from age 20 to two months before the month of the death (including any periods exempt from contribution requirements such as low-income periods).

Eligible survivors include a widow, a widower aged 55 or older at the time of the insured’s death (from age 60 if he does not receive a pension in his own right under the national program), children or grandchildren up to the end of the fiscal year in which the child reaches age 18 (age 19 if disabled), and parents or grandparents older than age 55 at the time of the insured’s death (benefits are paid from age 60), if they were financially dependent on the deceased at the time of death. The pension is paid to the first eligible survivor in the following order of priority: spouse, children, parents, grandchildren, and grandparents.

Widow’s supplement (employee’s pension insurance): An additional benefit may be paid to a childless widow aged 40...
Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension (national pension program): The full pension is 780,100 yen a year. A reduced pension is paid according to the number of paid or credited contributions. The pension is paid every two months.

Early pension: For those born on or after April 2, 1941, the pension is reduced by 0.5% multiplied by the number of months between application and one month before age 65. For older cohorts, the pension is reduced by 11% to 42%, depending on the age at which the pension is awarded.

Deferred pension: For those born on or after April 2, 1941, the pension is increased by 0.7% multiplied by the number of months between application and one month before age 65. For older cohorts, the pension paid at age 65 is increased by 12% to 88%, depending on the age at which the pension is awarded.

Dependent’s supplement: From 15,042 yen to 224,500 yen a year, depending on the spouse’s age, is paid to a qualifying spouse aged 65 or older.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually according to changes in prices and wages.

Old-age pension (employees’ pension insurance): The pension is based on the insured’s average monthly wage over the full career multiplied by a coefficient determined by the insured’s date of birth multiplied by the number of months of coverage. The pension is paid every two months.

Earnings test: For working pensioners aged 60 to 64, the full pension is paid if the combined total of monthly earnings and pension is no greater than 280,000 yen; if the combined monthly total is 280,000 yen to 470,000 yen, the pension is reduced by 50% of the amount exceeding 280,000 yen; if monthly earnings exceed 470,000 yen a month, the pension is further reduced.

For working pensioners aged 65 to 69, if the combined monthly earnings and pension exceed 470,000 yen a month, the pension is further reduced.

Dependent’s supplement: 224,500 yen a year is paid for a spouse; 224,500 yen a year for each of the first two children and 74,800 yen a year for each additional child.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually according to changes in prices and wages.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension (national pension program): 975,125 yen a year is paid for a Group I disability; 780,100 yen a year for a Group II disability.

Disability pension (employees’ pension program): 125% of the old-age employees’ pension (plus additional benefits for dependents) the insured received or was entitled to receive is paid for a Group I disability; 100% (plus additional benefits for dependents) for a Group II disability; or 100% for a Group III disability. For persons with less than 300 months of paid or credited contributions, the pension is calculated based on a contribution period of 300 months.

The minimum annual pension is 585,100 yen.

Dependent’s supplement: 224,500 yen a year is paid.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually according to changes in prices and wages.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension (national pension program): 780,100 yen a year is paid to a widow(er) or to full orphans. If there is more than one full orphan, the pension is split equally.

Dependent’s supplement: 224,500 yen a year is paid for each of the first two full orphans and 74,800 yen a year for each additional full orphan.

Childless widow’s pension (national pension program): 75% of the old-age pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid.

Benefits are paid every two months.

Death grant (national pension program): A lump sum of 120,000 yen to 320,000 yen is paid according to the number of paid contributions from three to 35 years.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually according to changes in prices and wages.

Survivor pension (employees’ pension insurance): 75% of the old-age pension is paid to the first eligible survivor.

Work Injury

Regulatory Framework

First law: 1911.

Current law: 1947 (workmen’s accident compensation insurance).

Type of program: Social insurance system.

Coverage

Employed persons.
Voluntary coverage for persons employed in agricultural, forestry, and fishery establishments with fewer than five regular employees.
Some self-employed persons and entrepreneurs (such as business owners of small- and medium-sized enterprises) are covered.
Special systems for civil servants.

Source of Funds

Insured person: None.

Self-employed person: 0.3% to 5.2% of the basic daily benefit multiplied by 365, according to the type of business.
The basic daily benefit is the insured’s average daily wage in the last three months before the injury occurred or disease began.

Employer: 0.25% to 8.8% of payroll, according to the type of business.

Government: Provides subsidies as needed.

Qualifying Conditions

There is no minimum qualifying period.

Temporary Disability Benefits

60% of the basic daily benefit plus a temporary disability special supplement of 20% of the basic daily benefit is paid after a three-day waiting period until recovery (the employer pays 60% of the average daily wage for the first three days).

The basic daily benefit is the insured’s average daily wage in the last three months before the injury occurred or disease began.

The minimum daily benefit is 3,920 yen.

The maximum daily benefit is 12,970 yen to 25,123 yen, depending on the insured’s age.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted quarterly for wage changes greater than 10% from the previous quarter.

Injury and diseases compensation pension: Paid from the 19th month of disability to persons with more severe disabilities (Injury and Disease Class 1 to 3). The annual benefit is 100% of the basic daily benefits multiplied by 245 to 313 days until recovery, according to the degree of disability, plus a special supplement based on the worker's annual salary bonus.

Benefits are paid every two months.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually for changes in wages.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Permanent disability pension: The pension varies according to the assessed degree of disability.

An annual pension of 131 to 313 times the basic daily benefit before the disability began is paid to persons with more severe disabilities (Disability Class 1 to 7). A lump sum of 56 to 503 times the basic daily benefit before the disability began is paid to persons with less severe disabilities (Disability Class 8 to 14).

The basic daily benefit is the insured’s average wage in the last three months before the injury occurred or disease began.

Constant-attendance allowance (Disability Class 1 and 2): Up to 104,950 yen a month is paid if the insured requires the constant attendance of others to perform daily functions (57,030 yen if family members provide care); up to 52,480 yen a month if the insured requires part-time care (28,520 yen if family members provide care).

Benefits are paid every two months.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually according to changes in wages.

Workers’ Medical Benefits

Medical benefits: Benefits include medical treatment, surgery, hospitalization, nursing, dental care, medicine, appliances, and transportation.

There is no limit to duration of benefits.
Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension: An annual pension of the basic daily benefit multiplied by 153 to 245 days is paid according to the number of survivors.

The basic daily benefit is calculated based on the deceased's wages in the last three months before the death.

Eligible survivors include a widow(er) aged 60 or older, children and grandchildren (up to the end of the fiscal year that the child reaches age 18), parents and grandparents aged 60 or older, and brothers and sisters (up to the end of the fiscal year that the child reaches age 18; or aged 60 or older) who were dependent on the deceased worker at the time of death.

Benefits are paid every two months.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are automatically adjusted annually according to changes in wages.

If there are no eligible survivors, a lump sum of the insured's average daily wage in the three months before death multiplied by 1,000 days is paid to a nondependent survivor.

Funeral grant: 60 days of the deceased's average daily wage in the three months before death or 315,000 yen plus 30 days of wages, whichever is greater, is paid.

Administrative Organization

Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare (http://www.mhlw.go.jp/) provides general supervision and administration.

Work Injury Compensation Department within the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare's Bureau of Labour Standards administers the program through prefectural Labour Bureaus and local Labour Standards Inspection Offices.
