The maximum monthly earnings used to calculate contributions are 4,500,000 kip.

Government: 6% of payroll as an employer for civil servants, and military and police personnel.

Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension: Age 60 (men) or age 55 (women) with at least 15 years of contributions (25 years for civil servants, and police and military personnel). Age 55 (men) or age 50 (women) for those in hazardous or arduous occupations.

Old-age lump-sum benefit: Age 60 (men) or age 55 (women) with less than 15 years of contributions (25 years for civil servants, and police and military personnel).

Disability pension: Must have at least 12 months of contributions in the last 24 months and an assessed degree of disability of at least 41%.

Disability lump-sum benefit: Must have at least 12 months of contributions in the last 24 months and an assessed degree of disability of less than 41%.
The National Social Security Fund’s Medical Committee assesses the disability.

Caregiver’s benefit: Paid for an assessed degree of disability of at least 80%.

Survivor pension: The deceased had at least five years of contributions.
Eligible survivors include a widow (aged 55 or older) or a nonworking widower (aged 60 or older); orphans up to age 18 (no limit if disabled and without working capacity); or a dependent father (aged 60 or older) or mother (aged 55 or older) without any income.
The widow(er)’s pension ceases upon remarriage or employment.

Survivor lump-sum benefit: Paid if the deceased had at least three months of contributions.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension: For private sector employees and self-employed persons, the pension is the insured’s total pension points multiplied by the estimated average insured earnings of all insured persons in the calendar year preceding retirement multiplied by 2%.
The number of pension points earned each year equals the insured’s average earnings divided by the year’s average insured earnings of all insured persons. Pension points are credited for periods when other benefits are received.
For civil servants, and police and military personnel, a percentage of the last insurable earnings is paid depending on the period during which the employee began working for the National Revolutionary Movement: from 80% to 100% for persons who began working before 1954; from 75% to 90% for persons who began working from 1955 to 1974; and from 70% to 80% for persons who began working after 1975.
Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted at least once a year according to changes in the average insured earnings of all insured persons.

Old-age lump-sum benefit: A lump sum of 1.5 times the insured’s average monthly insured earnings in the last six months multiplied by the number of years of contributions is paid.
