Exclusions: Self-employed persons; and household, family, and foreign workers.
Special system for military personnel.

Source of Funds
Insured person: 5% of gross earnings.
Self-employed person: Not applicable.
Employer: 10% of gross payroll.
Government: Contributes as an employer; covers administrative costs and any deficit.

Qualifying Conditions
Old-age pension: Age 60 with 15 years of contributions.
Early pension: Age 40 with 15 years of contributions.
Old-age settlement: Paid if the insured does not meet the contribution requirements for an old-age pension.
Disability pension: Younger than age 60 and assessed with a total incapacity for work.
Survivor pension: The deceased was in covered employment or was a pensioner at the time of death.
Survivor settlement: Paid if the deceased did not qualify for a survivor pension.
Eligible survivors include the widow(er), unmarried daughters and granddaughters of any age, sons and grandsons up to age 21 (age 26 if a full-time student, no limit if disabled), parents, and siblings.

The survivor pension for female survivors ceases upon marriage or remarriage.

Old-Age Benefits
Old-age pension: 5% of the insured’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before retirement (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers) is paid for each year of contributions.
The minimum monthly pension is 75% of the insured’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before retirement (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers).
The maximum monthly pension is 100% of the insured’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before retirement (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers).
Early pension: The pension is reduced by 2% (if the insured resigns) to 2.5% (if the insured is dismissed for disciplinary reasons) for each year that the pension is taken before the normal retirement age.
Old-age settlement: A lump sum of the insured’s contributions is paid.

Permanent Disability Benefits
Disability pension: The pension is 5% of the insured’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before the disability began (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers) multiplied by the number of years of contributions or 15 years (20 years for a nonwork-related disability), whichever is greater.
For a work-related disability, a full pension is paid regardless of contributory period.
The minimum monthly pension is 75% of the insured’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before the disability began (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers).
The maximum monthly pension is 100% of the insured’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before the disability began (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers).

Survivor Benefits
Survivor pension: 75% of the old-age or disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid to a widow(er) with no children (100% is split equally if there is more than one widow); 33.3% with one or more children (50% is split equally if there is more than one widow).
Orphan’s pension: 50% of the old-age or disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid for one eligible orphan; 66.7% is split equally for more than one orphan; 75% for a full orphan (100% is split equally for more than one full orphan).
Other eligible survivors: 16.7% to 50% of the old-age or disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid to other eligible survivors.

All survivor benefits combined must not exceed 100% of the deceased’s average gross monthly earnings in the last five years before the disability began (last gross monthly salary for public-sector workers).

Survivor settlement: A lump sum of the deceased’s contributions is paid.
