Old Age, Disability, and Survivors

Regulatory Framework

First laws: 1900 (old age) and 1944 (disability).

Current laws: 1967 (old age and survivors), 1994, and 2001 (guaranteed income).

Type of program: Social insurance system.

Coverage

Employed persons.

Special systems for self-employed persons and civil servants.

Source of Funds

Insured person: 7.5% of reference earnings (old age and survivors). Pensioners and prepensioners contribute from 0.5% to 2% of the pension or employment with a company supplement (formerly prepension, see Unemployment.)

Reference earnings are 100% of the insured's gross earnings for white-collar workers and 108% of the insured's gross earnings for blue-collar workers.

See Sickness and Maternity for disability pensions and funeral grants.

Self-employed person: Not applicable.

Employer: 8.86% of reference earnings (old age and survivors).

Reference earnings are 100% of the insured's gross earnings for white-collar workers and 108% of the insured's gross earnings for blue-collar workers.

See Sickness and Maternity for disability pensions and funeral grants.

Government: Annual subsidies.

Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension: Age 65 (rising to age 66 in 2025 and to age 67 in 2030) with at least 45 years of coverage; certain workers such as miners, seafarers and civil aviation flight crews can retire earlier under certain conditions.

A minimum guaranteed pension is paid with at least 66.7% of a full career (based on the equivalent of 208 days a year of full-time work).

Partial pension: Age 65 (rising to age 66 in 2025 and to age 67 in 2030) with less than 45 years of coverage.

Early pension: Age 62 (gradually rising to age 63 by 2018) with 40 years (gradually rising to 42 years by 2019) of coverage. The age requirement is reduced for certain workers with longer careers.

Pension bonus: Paid to insured persons who continue to work upon reaching the early retirement age or who have at least 44 years of coverage.

Vacation allowance: Paid to pensioners.

Special old-age pension (means tested): Paid at age 60 to the divorced spouse of a pensioner.

Means test: The income and individual pension of the divorced spouse is taken into consideration.

Guaranteed income for the elderly (means tested): Paid to low-income elderly persons aged 65 or older.

Means test: Monthly income must not exceed €1,052.58 if the insured lives alone; €701.72 if cohabiting (family allowances, alimony, and certain other benefits are excluded).

Disability pension: Paid for the loss of at least 66.7% of earning capacity in the usual occupation. The insured must have been covered during the two quarters before the quarter in which the disability began, completed 120 days of actual or credited work (or 400 hours for part-time workers), and met the legal requirements for a regular worker during the last 30 days before the disability began.

Regular workers generally work 38 hours a week; certain periods of inactivity may count toward meeting the requirement.

Spouse's pension: Paid to a widow(er) aged 45 and six months (gradually rising to age 55 by 2030) or older (any age if at least 66% permanently disabled or caring for a child) who was married to the deceased for at least one year (periods of legal cohabitation immediately preceding the marriage are taken into account); conditions are waived if a child was born during the marriage (or within 300 days following the insured's death) or if the insured's death was the result of an accident that occurred or an occupational disease that began after the date of marriage.

The widow(er)'s pension ceases on remarriage.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension: 60% of the insured's average lifetime earnings is paid (75% for a married couple if the spouse has no income). Past earnings are adjusted to reflect wage and price changes.

For each year of the insured's career, the minimum adjusted earnings used to calculate benefits are €23,374.55.

For each year of the insured's career, the maximum adjusted earnings used to calculate benefits are €53,528.57 (2015).

Minimum guaranteed pension: €14,024.72 a year is paid for a single person; €17,525.38 a year for a married couple. The pension is proportionally reduced according to the number of years of contributions. The minimum guaranteed pension may be paid if the amount of the partial pension is less than the minimum guaranteed pension.

Partial pension: A reduced pension is paid according to the number of years of contributions less than that required for a full career record.

Early pension: Calculated in the same way as the old-age pension.

Pension bonus: The bonus is €2.2524 multiplied by the number of days of work performed from January 1 in the year in which the insured reaches age 62 (or the year in which the insured starts his or her 44th year of work) and the last day of the month preceding retirement, or the final day of the month in which the insured reaches age 65.

Vacation allowance: €708.04 is paid to a single person; €885.07 to a couple. The allowance is paid annually in May from the second year that the insured receives a pension (unless the insured receives certain other benefits).

Special old-age pension (means tested): 50% of the insured's old-age pension is paid (based on 75% of average lifetime earnings minus any pension income earned by the divorced person in his or her own right).

Guaranteed income for the elderly (means tested): €1,052.58 a month is paid if the insured lives alone, is residing with children receiving certain child benefits, or meeting other specific conditions; €701.72 a month if cohabiting.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted periodically according to changes in the retail price index.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension: 65% of reference earnings is paid with dependents; 40% if the insured cohabits but has no dependents; 55% if the insured lives alone. The pension is paid after a one-year waiting period.

Reference earnings are the earnings the insured would have received on the date the disability began.

The maximum daily earnings used to calculate benefits depends on the date the disability began: before April 1, 2015, €134.2354; on or after April 1, 2015, €135.9133.

The minimum daily pension for a regular worker is €56.17 with dependents; €38.54 if the insured cohabits but has no dependents; €44.95 if the insured lives alone. If the insured does not meet the legal requirements for a regular worker, the minimum daily pension is €44.48 with no dependents; €33.36 with dependents.

Regular workers generally work 38 hours a week; certain periods of inactivity may count toward meeting the requirement.

The maximum daily pension depends on the date the disability began.

Survivor Benefits

Spouse's pension: 80% of the old-age pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid to a widow(er).

If the deceased had less than 45 years of contributions, the pension is calculated based on the ratio of the number of years worked to the number of years from age 20 and the year before the death.

The minimum annual pension is €13,533.45. For the spouse of an insured persons with at least 66.7% of the full contribution record, a proportionately reduced minimum pension is paid.

The maximum survivor pension plus the widow(er)'s own pension entitlement is 110% of the value of his or her own full pension entitlement.

A widow(er) who does not qualify for a spouse's pension receives the pension for 12 months.

Vacation allowance: €701.72 a year is paid in May.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted periodically according to changes in the retail price index.

First law: 1920.

Current laws: 1944 (social security) and 1991 (unemployment regulation).

Type of program: Social insurance system.

Coverage

Employed persons, first-time job seekers, certain categories of students, and workers with disabilities.

Exclusions: Self-employed persons.

Source of Funds

Insured person: 0.87% of reference earnings.

Reference earnings are 100% of the insured's gross earnings for white-collar workers and 108% of the insured's gross earnings for blue-collar workers.

Self-employed person: Not applicable.

Employer: 1.46% of reference earnings. In certain cases, an additional 1.6% of reference earnings is paid by employers with more than 10 employees.

Reference earnings are 100% of the insured's gross earnings for white-collar workers and 108% of the insured's gross earnings for blue-collar workers.

Government: Covers any deficit.

Qualifying Conditions

Unemployment benefit: The minimum coverage period varies according to age. If younger than age 36, at least 312 days of covered or deemed employment in the 21 months before the date of the claim for benefits; if aged 36 to 50, 468 days in 33 months; if older than age 50, 624 days in 42 months. The insured must register at an unemployment office and be capable of and available for work. Unemployment must be involuntary; if voluntary, the insured is either disqualified for four to 52 weeks or is ineligible for benefits.

Job search benefit: Younger than age 25 and does not qualify for the unemployment benefit. The job seeker must have completed compulsory education, must enroll in a 310-day training course, must register at an unemployment office, and must receive at least two positive evaluations.

Employment with a company supplement (formerly prepension): Aged 60 or older with at least 40 years (men) or 32 years (women, gradually rising by one year each year until reaching 40 years by 2024) of employment.

Aged unemployed person's supplement: Aged 55 or older with at least 20 years of employment, unemployed for at least 12 months, and not entitled to the employment with a company supplement (formerly prepension).

Unemployment Benefits

Unemployment benefit: The benefit depends on the insured's family status and the period of unemployment. For the first three-month period of unemployment, the benefit is 65% of the insured's last earnings; for the next nine-month period, 60% of earnings. An additional two-month period based on each year of salaried employment is paid for up to 36 months. For the first 12 months of the additional period, the benefit is 60% of earnings if the insured is cohabiting or has dependents (a spouse, partner, or another person with no individual income or for whom alimony is paid); 55% if the insured lives alone; or 40% for an insured cohabiting with a person with income. For the rest of the additional period, the benefit is gradually reduced up to a flat-rate monthly benefit calculated according to the insured's family status.

The benefit is calculated on the insured's average daily earnings. The average daily earnings are based on the last monthly earnings, up to €2,497.42 for the first six months of benefit; €2,327.64 for the next six months; and €2,175.13 after the first 12 months.

If the insured has not worked at least four consecutive months with the same employer before applying for benefits or has monthly earnings of less than €1,501.82, the benefit is based on monthly earnings of €1,501.82.

Job search benefit: The benefit depends on the insured's age and family status. For a single person younger than age 18 living alone, €320.32 is paid; if aged 18 to 20, €503.62; if aged 21 or older, €834.34. If the insured is cohabiting or has dependents (a spouse, partner, or another person with no individual income or for whom alimony is paid), €1,127.62 is paid regardless of age. For an insured person younger than age 18 cohabiting with persons with an income, €271.96 is paid; otherwise, €433.94.

Employment with a company supplement (formerly prepension): 50% of the difference between the monthly benefit (calculated as 60% of the insured's last gross earnings) and the insured's net earnings (gross earnings up to €3,786.74, reduced by social contributions and certain other deductions) is paid. The supplement may be paid until the insured reaches retirement age.

Aged unemployed person's supplement: A monthly supplement is paid according to age and family status.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted periodically according to changes in the retail price index.

Administrative Organization

Employment, Labor, and Social Dialogue Federal Public Service (<http://www.emploi.belgique.be>) provides general supervision.

National Social Security Office (<http://www.onss.be>) collects contributions.

National Employment Office (<http://www.onem.be>) adjudicates claims, supervises the agencies that pay benefits, and oversees employment policies through 30 regional offices.

Public Payment Office, or trade unions for their own members, pays benefits at the local level.
