Employers pay cash maternity benefits directly to employees.

Regulatory Framework

First law: 1940.

Current law: 1987 (workmen’s compensation).

Type of program: Employer-liability system through private carriers.

Coverage

Employed persons.

Exclusions: Self-employed persons, military personnel, casual workers, family labor, and agricultural employees working in firms with fewer than five workers.

Source of Funds

Insured person: None.

Self-employed person: Not applicable.

Employer: The total cost (provides benefits directly to employees or pays insurance premiums).

Government: None; contributes as an employer.

Qualifying Conditions

Must be assessed with a work injury or occupational disease. Occupational diseases are covered for certain occupations, according to a schedule in law. For occupational diseases, the incapacity or death must have occurred during employment or within 12 months after ceasing employment.
Temporary Disability Benefits

The difference between the employee’s earnings before the incapacity began and his or her actual or potential earnings after the incapacity began is paid. The benefit is paid after a five-day waiting period for up to 24 months; may be extended for up to six months.

The benefit may be paid periodically, as a lump sum, or as a combination of both, depending on the degree and estimated duration of the disability.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Permanent disability benefit: For a total (100%) disability, a lump sum of 96 months of the employee’s earnings before the disability began is paid. Constant-attendance supplement: 25% of the permanent disability benefit is paid if the insured requires the constant attendance of others to perform daily functions.

Partial disability: For an assessed degree of disability of less than 100%, a percentage of the full permanent disability benefit is paid based on the assessed degree of disability and a schedule in law.

Workers’ Medical Benefits

Benefits include medical, surgical, hospital, and nursing care and the cost of medicine and appliances up to specified amounts.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor benefit: A lump sum of 60 months of the employee’s earnings when the work injury occurred or occupational disease began is paid, minus the value of any disability benefits paid for the same work injury or occupational disease before the deceased’s death.

The benefit is paid to the employee’s dependents as determined by a court; a reduced benefit is paid if the survivor was only partially dependent.

Funeral grant: If there are no dependents, the employer pays the total cost of the funeral; if there are dependents, the employer pays for the cost of the funeral, up to a maximum.

Administrative Organization

Individual employers insure work injury liability through private carriers or pay compensation directly to employees or dependent survivors.

Unemployment

Regulatory Framework

Under the 2003 Labour Act, the employer pays any remuneration earned by the worker before termination, any deferred pay due to the worker before termination, and any compensation due to the worker related to a sickness or an accident.
