Old Age, Disability, and Survivors

Regulatory Framework
First and current law: 1959 (social insurance).
Type of program: Social insurance system.

Coverage
Employees in industry, commerce, and agriculture; self-employed persons; civil servants and military personnel; freelance workers; household workers; and employers. Voluntary coverage for citizens of Syria working abroad.
Exclusions: Family labor and certain foreign nationals, including foreign diplomats and employees of international organizations.

Source of Funds
Insured person: 7% of monthly earnings (plus an optional 1% of monthly earnings for voluntary supplemental disability and death benefits).
Self-employed person: 21.1% of monthly declared earnings.
Employer: 14.1% of monthly payroll.
Government: None; contributes as an employer.

Qualifying Conditions
Old-age pension: Age 60 (men) or age 55 (women) with at least 15 years of contributions; age 55 (men) or age 50 (women) with at least 20 years of contributions; at any age with at least 25 years of contributions (with at least 15 years of contributions if engaged in physically demanding or dangerous work).
Old-age increment: Paid if the insured has more than 32 years of contributions.
Old-age settlement: Age 60 (men) or age 55 (women) and does not meet the contribution requirements for the old-age pension.
Disability pension: Must be younger than age 65, be assessed with a degree of disability of at least 80%, and have at least six consecutive months of contributions or 12 nonconsecutive months of contributions. The disability must have begun during employment or within six months after ceasing employment but not be due to a work injury.
Disability benefit (voluntary insurance): Must be assessed with a degree of disability of greater than 35%. The disability may be due to a work injury.
Survivor pension: The deceased received or was entitled to receive an old-age or disability pension at the time of death.
Eligible survivors include an unemployed widow or a disabled widower; sons younger than age 21 (age 24 if disabled); unmarried daughters; and dependent parents, brothers, and unmarried sisters under certain conditions.
The survivor pension for a female survivor ceases upon (re)marriage.
Death benefit (voluntary insurance): Paid to eligible survivors when the insured dies.
Funeral grant: Paid to cover the cost of the deceased's funeral.

Old-Age Benefits
Old-age pension: 2.5% of the insured's base earnings multiplied by the number of years of contributions is paid.
For civil servants and military personnel, the pension is increased by 25% for the first 10,000 pounds of the pension paid, 20% for the next 10,000 pounds, and 10% for any amount above 20,000 pounds.
The base earnings are the insured's average monthly earnings in the previous year. (Increases or decreases in the insured's salary of more than 15% in a two-year period or 30% in a five-year period are not taken into account.)
The minimum monthly old-age pension is the legal monthly minimum wage.
The legal monthly minimum wage is 9,765 pounds (2013). The maximum monthly old-age pension is 80% of base earnings.
Old-age increment: A lump sum of one month of the old-age pension is paid for each year of contributions exceeding 32 years, up to three months of the pension.
Old-age settlement: A lump sum is paid of 11% (with less than 60 months of contributions), 13% (with at least 60 but less than 120 months of contributions), or 15% (with at least 120 months of contributions and under certain other conditions) of the insured's average monthly earnings in the last two years multiplied by the number of months of contributions.

Permanent Disability Benefits
Disability pension: 40% of the insured's base earnings plus 2% for each year of covered employment is paid.
The base earnings are the insured's average monthly earnings in the previous year. (Increases or decreases in the insured's salary of more than 15% in a two-year period or 30% in a five-year period are not taken into account.)
The minimum monthly disability pension is the legal monthly minimum wage.
The legal monthly minimum wage is 9,765 pounds (2013).
The maximum monthly disability pension is 80% of the insured's base earnings.

Disability benefit (voluntary insurance): A lump sum of 50% of the insured's covered earnings in the previous year is paid. The benefit is increased by 50% if the insured has a total disability as a result of a work injury.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension
Spouse's pension: 50% of the disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid to an eligible widow(er).
A widow may receive both the spouse's pension and the old-age pension.

Orphan's pension: 25% of the disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid for one eligible orphan; 37.5% is split equally for more than one orphan. For a full orphan, 62.5% of the disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid; 75% is split equally for more than one full orphan.

Other dependent's pension: 25% of the disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive is paid to each dependent parent if there is no eligible spouse or orphan; 12.5% if there is either an eligible spouse or orphan, or both.
The maximum combined survivor pension is 80% of the disability pension the deceased received or was entitled to receive.

Death benefit (voluntary insurance): A lump sum of 100% of the deceased’s covered earnings in the previous year is paid. The lump sum is increased by 50% if the insured’s death was caused by a work injury.

Funeral grant: A lump sum of three months of the deceased’s earnings is paid.
The maximum funeral grant is 100 pounds.
